

Bethany Elementary

2007-2008

Growing a Garden for Science: $965

The garden will provide opportunities for multiple units of study. It will enhance the learning of sun, light, and energy, and interpretation of data, as well as further understanding of life cycles. Students will write and take photographs to document their learning.